A FUN-FILLED EVENING
Minnie Duff and Louise Harrington did another great job hosting the Christmas Banquet at the Women's City Club. We enjoyed our fine entertainment. Roger Hooten, Kevin Fisher, Harry Fitzgerald, and Joey Marlin from Pleasant Valley entertained us with a variety of songs. John Gipson gave us an inspirational talk about the value of a Christian education.

FLAG

~~ERA~~

Mrs. Marilyn Simmons of FLAG speaks on ERA and Secular Humanism

Our January meeting at the home of Jo Ann Browning was very well attended. The weather was beautiful. Marilyn Simmons of the FLAG organization (Flag, Life, and God) presented a very informative program about how atheism is creeping into our schools and laws. She suggested that we investigate the textbooks that are used in the public schools. She also encouraged us to get more involved in the laws being passed in our country. Mrs. Simmons is an advocate of strong family life and Christian principles.

For our January meeting, Mrs. Marilyn Simmons of the FLAG (Family, Life and God) organization will speak about ERA. I think this will be a very informative program. Please make plans to attend. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Don Browning, 11212 Rocky Valley Dr., at 10:00 a.m. Come and enjoy this coffee and the good fellowship of our members.

GOETH'S NEW YEAR'S WISHES

Health enough to make work a pleasure;
Wealth enough to support your needs;
Strength enough to battle with difficulties
and overcome them;
Grace enough to confess your sins and forsake them;
Patience enough to toil until some good is accomplished;
Charity enough to see some good in your neighbors;
Love enough to move you to be useful and helpful
to others;
Faith enough to make real the things of God.

If you weren't one of the 250 people who attended the January meeting to hear Willie Franklin, you missed a treat. He encouraged the teenagers to attend a Christian college and marry a faithful Christian. Those in attendance ranged from a 6-week old baby to senior citizens and people from as far away as Benton, Jacksonville, and Conway. Many thanks to Kathy Stevens for her work in planning the meeting and in sending our letters to the area congregations. We also thank Harry Fitzgerald, Joey Marlin, and Michael Mayo for leading singing, and Bill Lamb for introducing the speaker. Since the meeting was held in the church auditorium we felt that it was best to let the men conduct the meeting since we had such a large mixed audience, and some people may not have understood that it was an AWH meeting and not a church service.

Thanks to Emogene Martin, Ruby Burgess, Inez Stowers, Mary Potter, Kathy Stevens, Beverly Lee, Teresa Burton, Carolyn Garner, Lee Ann Fowler, and others for providing the delicious cookies and punch.

Becky Moore of Searcy to speak:

How to Deal with Tragedy”

The March meeting at the home of Mrs. J. J. Pace, 6605 Pontiac Dr., N.L.R., at 10 a.m. on March 20, will have Becky Moore as the speaker. Mrs. Moore is a young widow who lost her husband about three years ago in a plane crash. She has spoken to several ladies' groups on the subject, "How to Deal with Tragedy." Bring a friend and come to this meeting.

Of mothers, flowers and tasty food

Mom — there were lots of them there among the more than 300 guests.

Flag — the serving table centerpiece was a mix of spring flowers in red, white and blue.

Apple pie — delicious tarts were on the varied menu.

That was the theme of the party — "Mom, the Flag and Apple Pie."

It was the annual spring luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the Associated Women for Harding. Women from all over Arkansas — Hot Springs, Searcy, Hope, Cabot, Camden, to name a few — crowded into Trapnall Hall Thursday to support the new university.

"The school itself isn't new, of course," said Dorothy Connor of Little Rock, who was chairman for the event. "But we did just obtain university status last fall. This is the largest private institution in the state and has a record enrollment of 3,001 this year. Harding, a fully accredited institution, now offers six degrees."

I had a chance to visit with some of the guests.

I caught Betty Hayes of Beebe seated on a couch in the hall, with Elaine Clary of Little Rock and Betty Curtis of Beebe.

"So what's new with you?" I asked her.

"My daughter's getting married,

Betty Woods

so that's one thing that's new. The other is that I am going to become a pilot. I have already taken my first lesson."

Elaine Clary told me that she is new in Little Rock, having moved here recently from Carbondale, Ill.

I asked about her interests.

"I'm very interested in civic work. Right now all I'm doing is getting myself established in the city."

There's a new volunteer around, folks. Go get her.

Betty Curtis said that most of Beebe is involved with school activities. Graduation from high school is taking place this week.

One of a number of groups from Hot Springs was enjoying a lunch in the open at the rear of Trapnall. We chatted with Mary Emma Smith, Dorothy Maddox and Lynn Young.

Mary Emma said that they are members of the Associated Women for Harding chapter in Hot Springs.

"We have 35 members now, and we're growing all the time. In April we sponsored a style show and raised $1,500 for the university."

This, she said, is in addition to the dues they pay of $300.

Model Barbara Mills, a member of the organization, was showing a striking multi-colored sundress with asymmetrical stripes.

It was from Forsythe's, as were all the fashions for the show. Hair was by Rudy of the Golden Door.

I cornered Anna Terry, Forsythe's fashion coordinator.

"Where will the sundress be worn this year?" I knew it was for more than casual wear.

"Everywhere," Anna said. "With the warmer offices and buildings, people will need to keep cool. They can wear the sundress in the office with a blazer over it."

"There's lots of color to be seen for summer," she said. "Real big will be madras in blazers, skirts and blouses. It's so practical because it will carry you from spring, through summer into fall."

Two pretty little girls were wandering the spacious rooms of the hall offering baskets of mints to the guests. They were Normandy Casey and Allisa Jackson of Little Rock.

It was fun — talking to the moms, viewing the flag and nibbling on apple pie.
